

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Norwich woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to read this Norwich woman's experience:

Mrs. Henry Brayman, 483 East Main Street, says: "For about a year I was so bad with backache, I couldn't get out of bed mornings without help. When I sat down it was the same way. I had to be helped up. At times I felt as though I was paralyzed from my hips down. My feet swelled so I had to take off my shoes and it was next to impossible to get up or down stairs. I got so I couldn't do a bit of housework, not even washing the dishes. When I stood a short time I was so weak and dizzy I had to sit down. Specks floated before my eyes and the pains in the back of my head and neck were unbearable. I used different medicines, but got no relief until I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills. All the swellings and pains left and my kidneys became normal. Two years have passed and I haven't had a sign of kidney trouble since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Brayman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Father Treanor, who was born in Providence, was ordained to the priesthood on St. Thomas' Day, December 21, 1878, by Cardinal (then archbishop) Gibbons, in Baltimore.

REV. HUGH TREANOR

He has held four pastorates during the 42 years of his priesthood, all in this city. For six years he was at St. Mary's, Norwalk, seven years ago last October he left St. Patrick's church in this city and went to Waterbury as pastor of the Sacred Heart church. He had formerly been located in Waterbury.

Father Treanor built the present church and parochial residence, and after 13 years of work there was transferred to St. Patrick's, Norwalk. He remained in Norwalk 15 years.

Father Treanor has always been known as a very earnest and successful parish worker, getting thoroughly acquainted with the members of his congregation and acting as their friend and counselor in temporal matters, as well as their spiritual adviser, and has always promoted the growth and prosperity of parishes under his charge.

The news of his death will be received with deep regret by his many friends and former parishioners in Norwalk.

STERLING HILL COUPLE CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Sterling Hill, Dec. 26.—Fifty years ago Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sherman of Sterling Hill were united in marriage, and by that union the Sherman and Sayles families, two of the oldest and most prominent of this section of Connecticut, became united. For several years past Mr. and Mrs. Sherman have made a big account of the Christmas homecoming of their dear ones, "Uncle Bob" always laying in a larger supply of food things than usual, that his faithful helpmate knows so well how to prepare and this year was no exception.

It was a jolly happy gathering up at the Sherman farm. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman could easily pass for several years younger than they really are. The 50 years of wedded life of the Shermans has been 50 years well spent. They are proud of the family that gathered around them the 50th anniversary of their marriage. In speaking of the glorious rounding out of a half century of happy married life, one can but think of the words of Bobby Burns, Scotland's sweet poet, in his famous poem, The Cotter's Saturday Night.

"FAIR STAFFORD" TITLE OF FATHER O'NEILL'S POEMS

Fair Stafford is the title of a little book of poems from the facile pen of Rev. Felix J. O'Neill, a native of Williamstown, but for so many years pastor of St. Edward's Roman Catholic church, Stafford, that he has almost earned the right to sing of the beauties of his present abiding place with the authority and love of one of Stafford's native sons. The sub-title of the pamphlet is: "My Son, War Poems Born Amid Her Lonely Hills." The verses were published in honor of the two hundredth birthday of the town and the home-coming of her valiant sons.

The poems are entitled: Laurels, Fair Stafford, Old Glory's Return, The Boys in Brown, The Patriot Girl, First Charge of the Cow-boys, The Red Cross Sister, Who Killed the Black Eagle? Pat and The Kaiser, Pat's Church and State and The Terrible Dream.

The frontispiece of the little book reproduces two charming views of Fair Stafford, entitled "Her Cradle" and "Her Springs."

Father O'Neill was at one time a curate at St. Patrick's church, Norwalk.

ORGAN RECITAL AT UNITED CHURCH

On Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Frederick W. Lester will give an organ recital at the United Congregational church assisted by Rev. Alexander H. Abbott. The programme is to be as follows:
